About Union Christian College, Aluva

Established in 1921, Union Christian College, Aluva, is a pioneering ecumenical institution in central Kerala founded by four alumni of Madras Christian College. Nestled on a 42-acre green campus along the Periyar and affiliated with Mahatma Gandhi University, the college upholds a legacy of integrity, heritage, and Christian values. With 18 departments, 2700 students, and 160 faculty members, it is renowned for academic excellence, research, and a vibrant campus life, governed by an ecumenical board representing major Christian denominations.

The School of Management Studies, established in 2013, offers MBA and BBA programmes that integrate technology with management education to produce industry-ready, value-driven professionals. Committed to academic rigor, personality development, and holistic learning, the School aims to make its programmes the most sought-after within Mahatma Gandhi University and among the leading management courses in Kerala and beyond.
